

Forgive This Time
By Andrew Sullivan - 2010

i think it's about time that we worked out this whole thing baby come here baby please come clean come say all the things that you've wanted to say for a while it's just that you know that we can't take this anymore we can't ignore it and we can't keep score cause we're taking our chances on a game that we know we can't win why don't we take this fight why don't we take our time to make these wrongs our rights and try to forgive this time baby you know that I do not like it when we stay up late we get jaded when we get this way when neither one of us ever seems to wanna give in so why don't we take a little moment take a big step back and relax before we rush it and we over-react cause cooler heads are better when the weather gets to causing a scene

BRIDGE

I know that we can get defeated
I know that times can be trying I know that we can get through anything together with a little bit of grace in our minds
