By Andrew Sullivan
2016

Intro: C G F G

C G F G
I could tell you stories of stunning beauty
C G F G
The likes of which many modern men will never see
F G Am G F
Like the look in your eyes when we said I do
G C
With hearts on fire like shades of June

I could tell you stories of a tempest wind
The way it rushes out and then it comes back again
Like the way we danced clear across that room
With hearts on fire like shades of June

F C
Heaven knows that we're not perfect
Am G
And if there's a time you're feeling blue
F C Am
I'd give you more of me because you're worth it
F G
And I know I'd get the same from you, do you know it too?

C G F G
I could try to tell you how I'm feeling
C G F G
No matter what I say, these words just won't do
F G F G
I'll hold your hand in mine, fingers intertwined
F G Am
With hearts on fire like shades of June
F G F G
I'll hold your hand in mine, fingers intertwined

With hearts on fire like shades of June
